

Wolfs

1 - The wolf is the largest member of the Canidae family

2 - Wolves are carnivores and they eat rabbits, fish, deer, moose and wild boar

3 - All wolf packs can have up to 2-30 wolfs a pack

4 - Wolves live in a very cold environment and need their thick fur to keep warm.

5 - Dogs bark more than wolves because dogs have evolved into the equivalent of overgrown wolf puppies.

6 - Wolves are animals that hunt, Play and staying together in packs.

7 - Wolves give live birth to there pup or cubs.

8 - There are sea wolves that live on the coast of British Columbia. Most of these wolves have never even seen a deer.

9 - Huskies are wolves that are dogs for people that are no harmful.

10 - All wolves are warm blooded.

11 - Wolf pack stay together and hunt together.

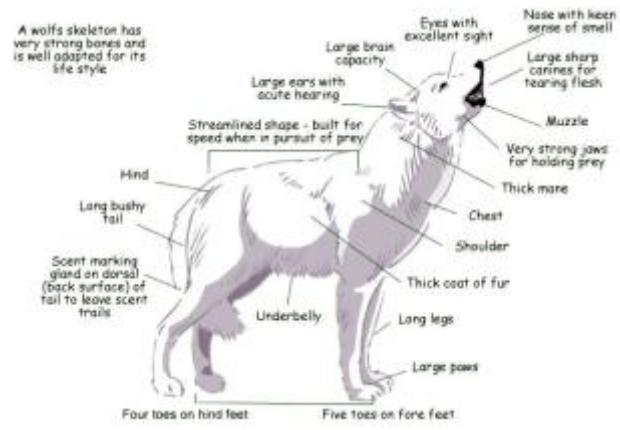

12 - All wolf have back bones.

Dogs are very similar to wolfs because dogs run as fast as a drop of water. Some dogs also hunt. Also wolfs breath with there lungs. All wolfs are Mammals.

A baby Wolf is called a Cub or Pup. Highly intelligent animals with upright ears, sharp, pointed muzzles and sharp eyes.

13 - When wolves howl together, they harmonize rather than sing on one note to give the illusion...

14 - A baby Cub

